ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Almighty God, who called your Church to witness that you were in Christ reconciling men to yourself: help us so to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be reconciled to you; through him who died for us and rose again and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

Pray for God's merciful intervention to stop the rapid spread of COVID-19 in our closest neighbours Malaysia and Indonesia; for their healthcare systems to cope with the overload in case numbers, for adequate oxygen and medical supplies to treat the sick and for the people to stand united in their fight against COVID-19. Pray also that world leaders will take immediate, rapid and large-scale action to drastically reduce greenhouse gas emissions in their countries, to slow down the rate of global warming and secure the future of our planet. According to UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres, "The Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change Working Group 1 Report is a code red for humanity."

SINGAPORE

In his National Day Message, PM Lee Hsien Loong said that the battle against COVID-19 has taken a toll on Singapore and "strained fault lines" in society. Singapore has to tackle difficult issues, such as support for lower-wage workers, anxieties over foreigners as well as race and religion frictions. Pray for wisdom for the tripartite workgroup who are looking into raising incomes of lower-income workers and creating opportunities for job progression. Pray for our policy makers to be divinely guided as they make adjustments to manage the quality, numbers and concentrations of foreigners in Singapore, so that we can continue to welcome them. Pray also that our racial and religious harmony which has taken the sustained efforts of several generations to build, will continue to remain strong through mutual understanding, cooperation and trust.

DIOCESE

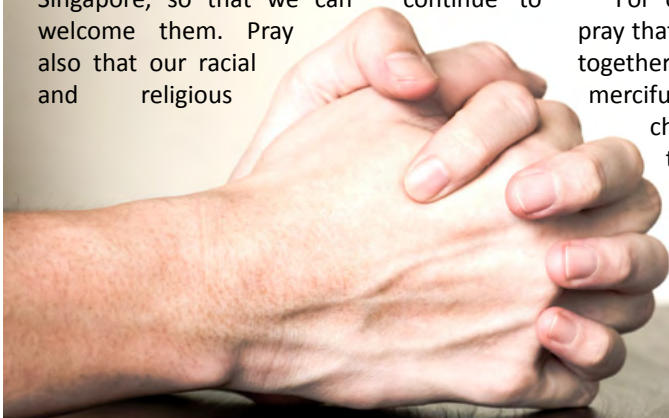

St Hilda's Church

Pray that God will bless the preaching of His word through the new sermon series and continue to pour out His Spirit upon the church. Pray for good response to their upcoming biblical courses and for God's anointing upon Revd Tay Hong Ern as he assumes the leadership of the Chinese congregation. Pray for Revd Stephen, the chaplain of St Hilda's Kindergarten, Mrs Hazel Ho, the new Vice Principal and for the leadership team as they care for the spiritual and educational needs of the children in these challenging times.

CATHEDRAL

Pray for our Vicar Canon Lewis Lew, and our church leadership as they continue to seek God's guidance for the shape of our onsite Services, in compliance with the new MCCY guidelines. Pray for good organization and teamwork among staff and volunteers who serve at our onsite Services and for the full cooperation of worshippers in observing the safe management measures. Pray for God's presence to fill every Service as we come into His house to worship Him.

For our Prayer & Praise on 17 August, pray that we will hear the clarion call to come together to pray and seek God's face for His merciful and divine intervention, in our church, our nation and our world. Pray that our spiritual ears and eyes will be opened to discern the Holy Spirit's leading, that we may yield to His will and be channels of His divine purposes.

ISAIAH

The Book of Isaiah is a book about God's people living in their inconsistencies and contradictions in a real and dangerous world dominated by hostile and destructive powers and nations. In the light of these realities and subsequent exile, how would they survive?

In this study of Isaiah and applying it to our lives today, we will be looking at the God who is present and judges, the God who will come and save and the God who will establish his kingdom forever where "the wolf and the lamb shall graze together."

Revd William Chee is presently the Lay Training Coordinator for the Diocese, coordinating the development of biblical, theological and ministry training courses for the laity of the Diocese.
