17 MARCH 2019

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all members and visitors to our Services today.

HOLY COMMUNION

We welcome all confirmed members of the Anglican Church and visitors who are communicant members of other churches to share in the Holy Communion with us. Our practice is to have the Holy Communion by intinction (dipping of the wafer into the wine). If you are not partaking of the Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a prayer of blessing. Please keep your hands clasped to indicate that you are not receiving the Communion.

CAR PARKING

There are very limited carpark lots available within the Cathedral. Members and visitors are encouraged to park at the surrounding carparks on Sunday.

CHILDREN MINISTRY

Each Service has special provisions for families with young children. Please see page 4.

COLLECT FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Almighty God, you show to those who are in error the light of your truth, that they may return to the way of righteousness: grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR ASH WEDNESDAY

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent: Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

GIVING AND THANKSGIVING

*"But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able thus to offer willingly?
For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you." 1 Chronicles 29:14*

Embedded in Judea-Christian teaching is the principle of stewardship, generosity and giving. This has effected how the Church and Christians have existed and lived in the world, though "not of the world" (John 17:14-15).

It has been a discipleship journey of learning to be generous in giving to the Church in her running of ministries, orphanages, social work, medical work and educational institutions. On top of that, Singaporeans have reached out to surrounding nations and much resource has been given to spreading the Gospel and uplifting of these societies.

Many Anglican parishes have also picked up a tradition of ensuring everything that is collected within a year is given away by the year's end. Hoarding is not encouraged and not seen as an act of faith. A prudent general reserve is kept, and in some churches, investments such as properties and legacy funds are kept. But year to year, faith is expected of congregations to rise to the needs.

The Church also learns to do things better but cheaper, funded by a "currency of love". There is a high level of lay volunteerism. Church clergy, pastors and staff are not expected to command salaries similar to their equivalent secular counterparts. In some parishes, including Cathedral, some staff members work pro bono.

The Church's contribution to a society's social, cultural and spiritual wealth is incalculable. I once attended a conference where a political expert lamented that some gifted Christians have dropped out as economic contributors. I think we should rejoice. Singapore will be a lot poorer today if everything in life is about a citizen maximising his capacity for wealth.

The Cathedral, as Mother Church, sets the pace and is a keen observer of good principles in giving. A huge portion of our "income" is given away to outside work, whether it is our own "blood, sweat and tears" or helping others with their ministries, here and abroad. Our own ministries are also given sufficient attention, with gifted staff helming and laying a foundation for growth now and in the future.

In an increasingly connected world, we also receive a lot of requests to help. A Singapore dollar goes a long way in other parts of the world. It is not easy, but our PCC and Missions Committees struggle to balance the budget and ensure we are helping as many as possible.

And so year after year, we are dependent on the commitment of the congregation to tithing, pledging and free-will offerings. The principle of tithing reflects a wonderful principle of proportion. If every Christian is faithful to his or her lot, we believe SAC can rise up to her obligations year after year. We need to sow a seed into God's Kingdom in time (future) and space (society and world).

Previous generations have given so that today, we may be able to continue the giving. God's Church constitutes an amazing ecosystem. May each of us do our part to "seek first His Kingdom." (Matthew 6:33)

Indeed, it is a privilege and I invite you to join in this continuous stream of giving.

WORLD

Bhutan

Pray that the Lord will be exalted in Bhutan; for a mighty move of the Holy Spirit, that the season of harvest will come quickly and that it will linger. Pray that the Father will shower His grace, the people will see God's power manifested in their lives and that they will respond to Jesus.

Pray for believers - that God will give them peace and strength to face the intense persecution and remain steadfast in their faith. Pray for God's provision, divine appointments and much fruit in their ministries.

The majority of Bhutanese indigenous languages have no Scriptures. Pray for Scripture translation and distribution; that New Testaments in the three major languages will be completed without hindrance; that these resources would reach many and impact many lives.

SINGAPORE

Pray that God will protect us, especially our young from unwholesome entertainment; for our government agencies to be vigilant and to take appropriate action, where necessary, to safeguard the well-being of our people.

Celebration of Hope

Pray that as we draw closer to the Celebration of Hope, the Church in Singapore will continue to be faithful and fervent in prayer, strong in unity and sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Pray for the mighty move of the Holy Spirit across our land, the mighty manifestation of God's presence and the raising up of a mighty harvest force for the fields that are ripe for harvest.

DIOCESE

St George's Church

Thank God for the rich diversity of people from many nations, who are part of St George's and are unified through faith in Christ. Pray that St George's will be a growing, multicultural, Christ-centred body of believers.

St Peter's Church

Pray for Vicar Canon Ong Chooi Seng as he seeks the Lord on re-starting a Chinese ministry in the church. Pray also for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on their Evangelistic Service on 24 March, that as the church sows in prayer, the gospel will go forth in power through the preaching of Ps Christopher Ho and many will turn to Christ

CATHEDRAL

Vision for C.O.H.

Pray for every Cathedral member to embrace and own the vision of Celebration of Hope; to recognise that it is God's initiative and not men's. Pray that God will set us on fire with passion to share the gospel with the lost and everyone in the Cathedral, from the young to the old, will be active participants in God's work; that we will have the joy of reaping a bumper harvest of souls

Project Khmer H.O.P.E.

Pray for the relief of rain as the weather has been hot and dry. Pray for the new students at PKH Aoral and Trang to adjust well to life at the Centres in the new academic year. Pray for the teachers and staff to have divine wisdom as they guide the students in their course of study.

Thank God for raising godly Cambodian men and women to lead the Living Streams Club activities at the Centres. Pray that they will be good role models for the youths.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK

Annie Dang, Marjorie Lau, Nancy Li, Barbara Rayney, Joy Brett, Doris Proctor, Dr. Ruth Jeremiah, Anna Lim, Albert Lim, Ana Pelaez, Chew Hock Hua and Lim Soon Chye.

Members who know them are encouraged to visit and pray with them.

WHY DO WE NEED TO BE AT THE STADIUM SO EARLY WHEN THE RALLY STARTS AT 10.30AM?

Volunteers need to report by 6am as it takes time for all volunteers to 'check-in' i.e. pass through security screening, receive distribution of food packs, attend a final briefing session and move into positions at their respective sectors around the Stadium, before gates open around 9am.

On the 18/19 May weekend, we will only be running Services at 8 am & 11.15 am. We look forward to having you with us at the National Stadium.

THANKSGIVING

We thank God for the life of Mr Lim Ewe Huat and Mr John Lee Chong Yew who went home to be with the Lord on 11 and 12 March 2019 respectively.
