Renewing our Commitment to serve the Jurong Community

Some of you may have read media reports that SAC was considering closing down our Child Development Centre (CDC) at Jurong West St 51. This decision was not undertaken lightly and we were responding to the financial struggles our childcare centre has been facing these past few years.

SAC is not adverse to seeing this as a ministry and supporting the work financially. But we were also asking all the hard questions of due diligence as this is a sector which is known to be self-funding or even profit-making. If the demand from the community has dropped after serving her in this manner for 30 over years, we did wonder if we should shift our attention to another need in the community. After all, this childcare work was driven by the call to serve the community.

I am sharing this so that you are aware of the values and principles which drive the way the Church stewards her resources. Apart from finances, what is sometimes not seen is the high level of human leadership and pastoral resources invested in every community work we do.

Over seventy concerned parents cared enough to give us feedback and offered some support. They are telling us that this work is still valued by the community. Encouraged by that, our management team, led by Soh Kim Seng, worked on a practical plan to strengthen the work. This gave the PCC good enough reasons to make a decision to continue running this centre.

We were also helped by Minister Desmond Lee's visit to the centre last Friday (26th July). Coincidentally, he is the Minister for Social and Family Development (MSF) and also the Jurong GRC MP. MSF and MOE jointly oversee the pre-school sector through her agency, ECDA (Early Childhood Development Agency). We discussed practical ways which can help the centre to do better, including seeking grants for families which may be struggling with paying the fees. We are also in discussions with our Anglican pre-school arm, St James' Pre-school Services (SJPS) to find various ways to strengthen our programmes and training of teachers.

This work started in 1986 and was officially opened by Bishop Moses Tay in 1987. It has a wonderful theme "Let the children come to Me" and paintings on the wall illustrate this. She has been a blessing to many children and their families all these years. Our Westside Anglican Church has been offering active chaplaincy support.

We can say that things are looking up for this centre. Last Saturday morning, many parents turned up to support the teachers, and the joy on their faces can be seen on our bulletin banner.

We cherish your continual support and prayers. If some of you feel led to serve in our Management Committee, do email our chairman at kimseng2@singnet.com.sg

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

As Singapore celebrates her 54th birthday on National Day, in our Bicentennial year, we recall with gratitude God's goodness and mighty hand upon our nation. We acknowledge it is God who has miraculously raised us up from an obscure fishing village to a first world nation, within one generation.

We thank God that Singapore has enjoyed political stability, racial harmony, peace and prosperity. God has put this little red dot on the world map and has blessed us to be a blessing to the nations. Pray that we will be ever mindful of God's grace towards us and will continue to look to Him for divine providence in the face of increasing challenges, amidst the changing political, social, economic and moral landscape of the world.

We repent and ask God's forgiveness for the things we have done that have grieved His heart. Pray that we will fear God and walk in His truth. Pray that Singapore will remain an oak of righteousness and will not succumb to external or internal pressures that threaten to de-rail her from her divine calling.

Bless our government leaders and pray for them by name. Pray that God will grant them wisdom, depth of insight, far sightedness, courage and strength to govern this nation in His ways and to lead Singapore onward in the purposes of God:

WEEKDAY PARKING

Members visiting the Cathedral during the weekdays are advised to park their vehicles at the car park lots provided and not outside of it. We have many heavy vehicles moving around the cathedral grounds due to the ongoing works at the Pavilion and the Bell Tower.

We have encountered vehicles parking along the double yellow lines, obstructing the traffic flow for the heavy vehicles. If there are insufficient parking places in the Cathedral, please park your vehicles at the nearby parking facilities.
