WELCOME

A warm welcome to all members and visitors to our Services today.

We welcome all confirmed members of the Anglican Church and visitors who are communicant members of other churches to share in the Holy Communion with us. Our practice is to have the Holy Communion by intinction (dipping of the wafer into the wine). If you are not partaking of the Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a prayer of blessing. Please keep your hands clasped to indicate that you are not receiving the Communion.

OF BROTHERS AND SISTERS

And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it." Luke 18:20,21

Properly speaking, I belong to two Orders.

The first one happened on 1st of May 1976 when I became a Christian. The second one happened much later when I was ordained as a deacon in the Anglican Church. The thing about "families and orders" are that they both have a stable and permanent ring to it.

These are orders one should never quit from. It is a lifelong pledge and reflects a deep sense of belonging, where one's identity and calling is wrapped up in.

In a sense, 66 confirmands joined the order of God's family last Saturday. I can say that they have "become Anglicans": valid not just in our diocese, but worldwide. Indeed, we welcome them warmly into the Cathedral family.

Rootedness, especially in this day and age is important. Confirmation is our traditional Anglican way of strengthening the faith of a teenager who was baptised as an infant. There will be a teaching and preparation course ("catechism"), as the teenager comes of age. Currently, the age which our Diocese has set is 14. For those who converted and were baptised as adults, it becomes a way of admittance into the Church membership.

I should add that Confirmation was normally ministered immediately after baptism and one can see the spiritual significance of the Bishop laying his hand, impart the Spirit and accepting a baptised person into the Church. This sacramental aspect of Confirmation (as a part of baptism) is somewhat lost in these days where due to practicalities, both rites are administered separately.

In the Confirmation Course, we introduce some distinctives of the Anglican Church. We are starting an Anglicanism track under our Christian Education department in 2020. The areas which will be taught over a few courses will include our Biblical beliefs/doctrines, the history of our Church and Worship and Liturgy. This will be a good way to explore further the introductory ideas taught at Confirmation and is properly speaking, our continuing Catechism track.

Apart from rooting one's faith and appreciation of His Church, it is also about being aware of the rich diversity in the Anglican Church world wide. In fact a good Anglican Course will even lead one to appreciate the grace gifts in other parts of the Body of Christ.

All said, the words of Jesus in Luke 18:20-21 can lead us into a deeper sense of being brothers and sisters. When we hear His Word and obey, such as forgiveness, love, humility and so on, we experience a rich fellowship in Christ. This order is more than just a permanent status, it can be a deepening experience. This is one reason why you may feel a deeper sense of kinship with a practising Christian regardless of his or her denomination affiliation.

Indeed as we are reminded in our liturgy, when we walk in the light, we will have fellowship with one another (1 John 1:7).

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

THE WORLD

New Zealand

We pray for New Zealand. Like many modern secular societies there has been a steady decline in church going in the last 20 years. Pray for a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit to renew and revive the church; for effective training and discipleship tools to equip Christians and ministers to connect meaningfully with the unchurched; new expressions of church that are dynamic, relational, relevant and culturally appropriate to the Caucasian majority and the many minorities. Pray also for the different denominations, that they will unite to advance God's Kingdom in this nation. (Source: Operation World)

SINGAPORE

Racial & Cultural Sensitivities

Singapore has a long-standing Chinese-Malay-Indian-Others framework but there is a need to encourage more meaningful and sustained interactions between the different races. Pray for OnePeople.sg (our national body promoting racial and religious harmony, chaired by Dr. Janil Puthucherry), as it plans dialogue sessions with Singapore residents to discuss issues of race and cultural sensitivities. Pray for open communication that will lead to fruitful outcomes. Pray also for officials of OnePeople.sg to have divine wisdom as they seek to address any present and potential fault lines in our society and to create greater social awareness amongst the different races, of the need to be racially and culturally sensitive to each other.

DIOCESE

Chapel of the Holy Spirit

Pray for the Holy Spirit's leading and anointing upon Vicar Revd Michael Teh, priests, pastoral and administrative staff as they serve the Lord in this parish. Pray for clear vision, wisdom and divine grace as the church re-launches their Tamil ministry. Pray that this ministry will become a powerful platform for outreach to the Tamil speaking in the nearby residential areas.

Chapel of Christ The King

Pray for Ag. Vicar Revd Timothy Ewing-Chow and his team of pastoral and administrative staff as they prepare the church for their move to St Margaret's Secondary School. Pray for all members to embrace the new worship venue, for unity as they adapt to the changes and for God's grace and strength to face any challenges ahead.

CATHEDRAL

Acts Centre

Pray for God's divine guidance and wisdom in the discussions and preparations leading up to Acts Centre becoming the English Congregation of My Saviour's Church, in the near future. Pray that the transition will be operationally smooth and that that God will grant favour to His church as they reach out to the neighbourhood, through their tuition programme and other activities.

Construction of the Pavilion

Pray for good health and safety of those who are working tirelessly to complete our new pavilion; that God will grant them divine strength, clear minds and skilled hands in the construction of this facility; for the installation of a good sound system and careful detailing, so as to maximise the use of the space for the diverse needs of various ministry groups in the Cathedral.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK

Annie Dang, Marjorie Lau, Nancy Li, Barbara Rayney, Joy Brett, Doris Proctor, Ana Pelaez, Chew Hock Hua and Lim Soon Chye.

Members who know them are encouraged to visit and pray with them.
