

8am Sunday School Children's Day Celebration

ST ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL
THE DIOCESE OF SINGAPORE

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all members and visitors to our Services today.

HOLY COMMUNION

We welcome all confirmed members of the Anglican Church and visitors who are communicant members of other churches to share in the Holy Communion with us. Our practice is to have the Holy Communion by intinction (dipping of the wafer into the wine). If you are not partaking of the Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a prayer of blessing. Please keep your hands clasped to indicate that you are not receiving the Communion.

PRAYER & MINISTRY

If you would like to talk to someone or receive prayer ministry, in most Services this is offered either during or after a Service. Note the following:

Sat 4.30pm	In Service
7.00am	After Service at Graham White Library, North Transept, Ground floor
8.00am	After Service at prayer table
9.00am	In Service
11.15am	After Service at communion rails
eleven.30	In Service
5.00pm	After Service at communion rails

CAR PARKING

There are very limited carpark lots available within the Cathedral. Members and visitors are encouraged to park at the surrounding carparks on Sunday.

CHILDREN MINISTRY

Each Service has special provisions for families with young children. Please see page 4.

27 OCTOBER 2019
LAST SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

COLLECT

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

"Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine..."
Ephesians 3:20

In quietness,

I imagine a place where...

One can draw away from the world. For just a while (Mark 6:31). Being apart, he now sees clearly how incongruent and self-destructive modern life has become. Our early fathers used to see the world as shipwrecked, where one needed to swim for his life. Not towards the world but away from. For many of us, we drift compliantly, letting the tides take us deeper into spiritual wreckage.

One can be in solitude. He pulls away from the demands of self amongst others. He takes a respite from the need to be loved, thought well of and praised. He walks off the stage, out of the limelight. In the audience of One, he begins to see himself as he truly is. He gets a right perspective of issues, people etc. He comes to his senses (Luke 15:17).

One can meditate. A few sentences of Scripture at a time. While there is a place for reading long passages of Scripture, pausing and going deep can only be experienced when one is not in a hurry. It is not about analysing Scripture. Why was that said? When was that said? What was said? There is a time for inductive Bible Study, but not in this place. One asks instead, what is God saying to me today through His Word?

One can read. Writings that matter. Those that feed the soul. Planting seeds that seem to be ever growing in our interior world. Where words and ideas are not highlighted in pages, but inside of us. Captured forever as inner wisdom which continues to guide us through life. Shaping our intuitions and instincts. Some precious words are from the dead, our "absent brethren." Harder to read and grasp, they write in un-modern ways which we are less accustomed to. Like all things of worth, it takes effort to understand. Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

One can grow compassion for others. Solitude breeds compassionate solidarity. For when one sees himself as he truly is, he refrains from doing "life-reading" of others. This is the peril of judging, where in our minds we play god (or the devil?) and categorise people into the good and the very good, the bad and the very bad. When we allow God to deal with the log in our eyes, we have no view left for the speck in others (Matt 7:3). Instead, we accept others as Christ has accepted us. We love, we feel, we "com-passio" - we suffer along side (com: along, passio: suffer).

One realises that apart from Christ, one can do nothing (John 15:5). This is a daily discovery that comes through being more conscious of our being than doing. Being in the presence of God, praying and relying in Him. His Spirit shapes our being and in turn, our lives become life-giving. We bring the presence of God into the lives of others. We stop discouraging others, making them cower in fear. We encourage (embolden) them instead into the fulness of their destiny in God.

I will continue to imagine aka to pray, for such a place for me, for you, for us.

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

THE WORLD

Thailand

Our Cathedral member Samantha Ooi is serving God in Northern Thailand among the Shan people, under the umbrella of Youth With A Mission (YWAM).

We rejoice with her in the fruitful harvest of souls at their recent evangelistic events at 4 locations in Northern Thailand. Pray for God's leading as her team follows up the new believers. Pray that the gospel seeds which have been planted, will take deep root in their lives; for Bible study groups to be established and for the people to be hungry for God. Pray for the communities in these 4 locations to be transformed by the power of God and become a people whose God is the Lord.

Pray that God will supply all their needs to run the daycare centre and school ministries; for His abundant provision to meet their daily expenses and the upkeep of their ministry truck. Pray that Jesus will reveal Himself to the children every day.

Pray for team unity, and for their continued spiritual growth; for God to open doors to the gospel and that they may proclaim His salvation clearly. Pray for more workers to be in this harvest field.

SINGAPORE

Pray for our government to be divinely guided in matters of bilateral and international relations with foreign countries; that God will enable us, by His grace to make positive contributions, to the global discussion on the issue of climate change and to mitigate the effects of trade war tensions that has led to slow economic growth. Pray for God's sovereign intervention in the face of increasing attacks on God's design for families in Singapore.

DIOCESE

Deanery of Thailand

Pray for the field clergy, pastoral staff and those who serve in our various churches, community outreaches and schools in Bangkok, Lat Krabang, Banchang, Korat, Sawang Daendin, Chiangmai, Pai and Omkoi, that they will be fervent in preaching the gospel, committed to making disciples and united in spirit to glorify God in all they do. Pray also for the smooth completion of Christ Church Ban Chang Ministry Block; for the design, building approval, financial provision and construction of Phase 1B of Lat Krabang Anglican Church by 2020; for the purchase of a piece of land for the Mae Sot Anglican Church.

Diocesan Day of Fast & Prayer (2 Nov 2019)

Pray for God's powerful anointing to fall upon His people as we gather to seek His face and cry out to Him in prayer; that God will lay His concerns upon our heart and we will pray His agenda; we will hear Him so clearly through His Word and His servants, and we will move together, in unity and in the power of His Holy Spirit, to accomplish His will for our Diocese.

CATHEDRAL

The Cathedral Choir

Pray for our Cathedral Choir who are currently on an overseas trip to Christ Church Bangkok and Lat Krabang Anglican Church. Pray that they will gain new insights from this ministry experience and they will be a channel of God's blessings to the Christians in Thailand, through their gift of music. Pray also for journey mercy and divine protection over them.

Experiencing God Musical (3 Nov 2019)

Pray that all who are at the musical will be captivated by the message of the cross and by the Christ who is the Savior of the world. Pray that as we hear His word, we will come to know and to respond in worship to the greatness of our Almighty God.

Baptism and Confirmation Course (starting 3 Nov 2019)

Pray for the new baptism-confirmation course that is starting on 3 Nov, that God will bless the candidates as they begin to build a foundation for their faith, with the guidance of anointed teachers and spiritual mentors; pray that they will grow in their knowledge of God and experience His presence and power in their daily lives.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK

Annie Dang, Marjorie Lau, Nancy Li, Barbara Rayney, Joy Brett, Doris Proctor, Ana Pelaez, Chew Hock Hua and Lim Soon Chye.

Members who know them are encouraged to visit and pray with them.

GIVING TITHES & PLEDGES

It is always a privilege to worship God through the resources He has blessed us with. Tithing and pledging is a planned and disciplined form of giving which also helps the Cathedral to plan and budget well for her ministries and missions giving.

For those who wish to start tithing or pledging to the work of the Cathedral, please visit cathedral.org.sg/giving for instructions on how you can begin to do so.

We warmly welcome you to St Andrew's Cathedral

Please complete and return this portion to the ushers or the Info Desk, or simply drop it into an offering bag.
