ST ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL

THE DIOCESE OF SINGAPORE

3 NOVEMBER 2019
ALL SAINTS' DAY

WELCOME

A warm welcome to all members and visitors to our Services today.

HOLY COMMUNION

We welcome all confirmed members of the Anglican Church and visitors who are communicant members of other churches to share in the Holy Communion with us. Our practice is to have the Holy Communion by intinction (dipping of the wafer into the wine). If you are not partaking of the Communion, you are welcome to come forward to receive a prayer of blessing. Please keep your hands clasped to indicate that you are not receiving the Communion.

PRAYER & MINISTRY

If you would like to talk to someone or receive prayer ministry, in most Services this is offered either during or after a Service. Note the following:

Sat 4.30pm	In Service
7.00am	After Service at Graham White Library, North Transept, Ground floor
8.00am	After Service at prayer table
9.00am	In Service
11.15am	After Service at communion rails
eleven.30	In Service
5.00pm	After Service at communion rails

CAR PARKING

There are very limited carpark lots available within the Cathedral. Members and visitors are encouraged to park at the surrounding carparks on Sunday.

CHILDREN MINISTRY

Each Service has special provisions for families with young children. Please see page 4.

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saint in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

RECEIVING FROM THE LORD AT THE COMMUNION

For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me. In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 1 Cor 11:24-26

For some of our Services, the Holy Communion is a weekly experience. Others have it fortnightly. Why do we celebrate the Communion at all?

For a start, this is a tradition handed down to us. Paying attention to the words of Scripture, St Paul said, "For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you..." (v 23). And He went on to speak of an event, not just a teaching. It was one where on the night our Lord Jesus was betrayed, he took bread and broke it, he took the cup and drank it, saying this bread is my body for you, this cup is the new covenant in my blood, do this in remembrance of me." That for the disciples later, this act, indolent with his cross-sacrifice, was obvious.

What was Paul's specific instruction? The phrase "Do this in remembrance of me" can be translated "Do or make this as my memorial." We are not just given something to say. We are not given form of words. We are given an action, something to do or perform. And as we do so, we continue to proclaim the Lord's death until He comes. In this "in-between times", we continue what was handed down to us from the apostles.

However, this Christian tradition is much more than just a past memory or pious nostalgia. The word remember, or anamnesis, is significant.

Research into the Old Testament way of understanding God's works in the past as the Jews celebrate them in the present through rituals can be helpful. In this respect the continuing Jewish celebration of the Passover meal is an example. Anamnesis is an "objective memorial" where, as one celebrates the past, God's saving acts continue to be effective in the present. The benefits of his death and resurrection are received and experienced in the here and now by faith with thanksgiving; yet, the historical event remains "once for all" and never repeated. This is made abundantly clear in Scriptures (see Romans 6:9-10, Heb 9:25-28). It is not a repeated death; Jesus is not re-sacrificed.

Yet, it is not just a psychological recall either. The unanimous tradition of the Church (in the east and west) in the first millennial testify to this: it is an active memorial, where we appropriate for ourselves what Christ had given to us in the past, and is still giving. In this sense, he is the true celebrant at every communion. It is something enlivened by the Spirit as we meet as his people and gather in His Name. We are united with him and enter into the mysteries of His death and resurrection. We centre our lives on it. In so doing, we also offer our own lives for His Service, remembering that at the heart of the Christian faith is self-sacrifice.

Instead, at every Communion, let's re-centre our lives on the heart of what Christ had timelessly done for us: His saving act for our holy reconciliation and our future hope for a wholly reconciliation.

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

THE WORLD

Taiwan

Thank God for the open doors to missionaries; pray that more will be sent to serve Him in various capacities in this mission field. Pray for the more than one million youths and university students in Taiwan, who are generally more open to the gospel; for Christian organisations who are reaching out to this group of young people to have divine wisdom, creativity and boldness to sow the gospel seed into these young lives. Pray for their spiritual awakening to the truth of God's word and for growth in spiritual maturity as they dedicate their lives to follow Christ.

SINGAPORE

Pray for divine protection, especially over the minds and hearts of our young, against the pervasive influence of pornography and general moral degradation, that has led to misconduct in our institutions of higher learning. Pray that our young people will have the moral strength and discipline to build and live wholesome lives and that those who are struggling with addictive behaviours will seek and find help. Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, pure, lovely and admirable, may our minds dwell on these things (Phil. 4:8).

Pray for our Vicar Canon Terry Wong, priests, deaconesses, pastoral and administrative staff of the English Congregation, for Canon Titus, priests and pastoral staff of the Mandarin Congregation, as we work together with the laity to fulfil God's call and destiny for our Cathedral, in her multi-faceted role as a city church and the mother church of the Diocese. Pray that we will understand the times and the seasons of God's mighty move; and be ready to partner Him for what He will do; that we will continue to sow the gospel seed and reap a plentiful harvest, disciple new believers and send them out as Kingdom workers to the harvest fields of the world.

Election of next Diocesan Bishop

Pray that God will guide and direct our Diocese as the Synod meets this week to begin the process of choosing our next bishop. Pray that the Church will be guided in this discernment process, and be prepared and stay united in this season of leadership change.

CATHEDRAL

SAC Men's Ministry

Pray for more men to be involved in this ministry as small group facilitators; for there to be an openness and a willingness among the men in the Cathedral to build strong spiritual friendships and to support one another in the journey of life.

Construction of Pavilion

Pray for good weather to carry out the construction work without interruption, for the good health and safety of our workers; for good organisation, teamwork and a stress-free work environment to complete the construction in good time. Pray also for favour from the relevant authorities, that the necessary approvals will be granted, for the use of the pavilion.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK

Annie Dang, Marjorie Lau, Nancy Li, Barbara Rayney, Joy Brett, Doris Proctor, Ana Pelaez, Chew Hock Hua and Lim Soon Chye.

Members who know them are encouraged to visit and pray with them.
