BECOMING A Christian

God created the world and made us to be in loving relationship with him. Though created good, human nature became fatally flawed, and we are now all out of step with God. In Bible language, we are sinners, guilty before God and separated from him.

The good news of the Gospel is that God the Father sent his eternal Son into this world to reconcile us to himself, to free us to love and serve him, and to prepare us to share his glory in the life to come.

Jesus enables us by his Holy Spirit to turn wholeheartedly from our sinful and self-centred ways (repentance), and to entrust ourselves to him to live in union and communion with him (faith). In spiritual terms, sin is the way of death, and fellowship with Christ is the way of life.

Turning to Christ brings us into fellowship with God. Baptism, which is the rite of entry into the Church's fellowship, marks the beginning of this new life in Christ. The apostle Peter, proclaiming the Gospel, said, "Repent and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:38).

Through faith, repentance, and Baptism we are spiritually united to Jesus and become children of God the Father. Jesus said: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). As we come to the Father through Jesus Christ, God the Holy Spirit enlightens our minds and hearts to know him, and we are born again spiritually to new life. To continue to live faithfully as Christians, we must rely upon the power and gifts which the Holy Spirit gives to God's people.

A clear way to make this commitment of faith and repentance is to offer to God a prayer in which you

- confess your sins to God, being as specific as possible, and repent by turning from them;
- thank God for his mercy and forgiveness given to you in Jesus Christ;
- promise to follow and obey Jesus as your Lord;
- ask the Holy Spirit to help you be faithful to Jesus as you grow into spiritual maturity.

TURNING TO CHRIST BRINGS US INTO FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD.

One example of such a prayer is the following:

Almighty Father, I confess that I have sinned against you in my thoughts, words, and actions (especially _____). I am truly sorry and humbly repent. Thank you for forgiving my sins through the death of your Son, Jesus. I turn to you and give you my life. Fill and strengthen me with your Holy Spirit to love you, to follow Jesus as my Lord in the fellowship of his Church, and to become more like him each day. Amen.

If you have prayed this prayer and you would like to be a Christian, please contact one of our Cathedral staff (tel: 63376104, info@cathedral.org.sg). We also run the Alpha Course which is suited for those seeking to know more about the Christian faith.

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

THE WORLD

Floods in China, India, Nepal & Bangladesh

Weeks of torrential rain in southern China have caused landslides, floods and mudslides. Millions of people have been left homeless and economic losses total billions of yuan. Several dams across the country's largest fresh water lake have burst and the water level of nationwide rivers is at an alarming level; some buildings have collapsed into the water. More than one hundred people are reported to have died and millions have been evacuated. In India, Nepal and Bangladesh, heavy rains have also inundated thousands of villages, killing hundreds and displacing a few million people. Pray for the Lord's merciful intervention to abate the heavy rains and disperse the flood waters. Pray for rescue workers to be speedily deployed to affected areas, for timely aid to reach the affected people and for the release of government funds to rebuild areas devastated by the floods.

SINGAPORE

Pray that the new shape of politics and political debates in the new Parliament will work well for Singapore; that political candidates elected into government will put national interest before party politics (PM Lee). Pray that Members of Parliament will continue to build on the strong foundation laid by their forebears and be divinely guided to address the many and varied concerns of the electorate, especially those of the younger generation, who have different aspirations and life experiences.

DIOCESE

Deanery of Cambodia

Pray for the Dean of Cambodia Revd Steven Seah, Home Base Coordinators Revd Martin Jungnickel and Revd Steven Chong to discern the times and the seasons, and to align the church to God's agenda. Pray that farmers will reap an abundant harvest so that there may be surpluses to feed the jobless and poor; for students to be protected against the virus as high schools reopen in Aug, for the Whitakers to be refreshed by the Lord as they take their furlough in the U.S and for their eldest daughter to settle into university life as she begins her course of study in Aug. Pray for God to bless the evangelistic and discipleship efforts in the provinces, with fruitfulness.

CATHEDRAL

Prayer & Praise (28 July, 7.14 pm)

Pray for good attendance as we launch our very first zoom Prayer & Praise meeting on 28 July, for good internet connection and technical support. Pray for a Spirit-led and Spirit filled time of communion with God in prayer; for our hearts to be rightly postured with deep longing to seek His face. Pray that through the fervent, united prayers of His saints, God our Sovereign King, will manifest His presence and bring about the desired change in our nation, our church and our lives, to align with His perfect will.

Family Life Ministry (30 July, 8 pm)

Pray for good response for the Family Life webinar 'Secrets to a Thriving Marriage' on 30 July; for married couples who attend the talk to be blessed and encouraged to take steps to strengthen their marital relationships; Pray for God's anointing on the speaker Mr. Darren Tan. Pray also for other upcoming Family Life courses, i.e. The Marriage Course and The Parenting Course, to reach out to families in the Cathedral and beyond; for divine wisdom and guidance for the Family Life core team as they carry out their mission to help Christ-centred families grow and journey together.

BEFRIENDING MIGRANT WORKERS

Relief Work

In this Covid-19 pandemic, members the Cathedral have gone out of their way to bring tangible relief to others in their difficulty.

At the start of the Circuit Breaker period, the Cathedral partnered Crisis Relief Alliance(CRA), to alleviate the situation in a number of the 110 factory-converted dormitories where migrant workers (mainly Indian and Bangladeshi) were being attended to by the CRA medical teams. With the financial support raised from members, we were able to provide each worker with a whole-fruits pack and snacks/ care pack each week. Volunteers applied precautionary measures and delivered these supplies to an average of 7,400 workers in up to 64 dormitories, weekly.

In post- Circuit Breaker Phase 2, we adjusted our support so that whole-fruits packs were supplied weekly, to workers who were not yet able to leave their dormitories for work. This week (starting 26 July), we will be completing this relief work of providing supplies to the dormitories. The estimated cost of this project was $200,000 and the actual cost for this work for 15 weeks amounts to $215,000.

All contributions collected through the SAC-CRA Covid-19 Relief fund have been fully disbursed. This special account will soon be closed. We would like to thank all who contributed their funds and shared their efforts in making this relief work possible.

While the work of providing relief supplies is now completed, medical support and counselling for the migrant workers is still carried out by the CRA teams. In addition, the Cathedral's BMW (Befriending Migrant Workers) Ministry continues to conduct online English Tuition for the workers in their dormitories

If you are interested to participate in the Cathedral's other works to reach the poor and needy in our community, please visit cathedral.org.sg/neighbor.
